DATED THIS THE 24th DAY OF JULY, 2007

JUDGMENT

The petitioners are aggrieved by the action of the Corporation of Cochin in attempting to kill the petitioners' dogs on the ground that they are stray dogs causing nuisance to people. The contention of the petitioners is that the petitioners have obtained Ext.P1 licence for the dogs and therefore, they are not stray dogs, which are liable to be killed.

The learned standing counsel appearing for the Corporation of Cochin submits that if the petitioners' dogs are covered by valid licence, the Corporation would not interfere. This is recorded and the writ petition is closed.
